ing to their employers, be ween 25 and 30 employes of the shade department of the United States Finishing company's Greeneville plant left theo wars and walked out of the building. When asked why they had so acted, they said that they had decided not to work said that they had decided not to work unless they were given an nerease in their wages. The demand was for an increase of 21-2 cents an hour. In view of the fact that the demand was suddenly proposed and that the em-ployes left the company's plant with-out warning of their intention to do so, the management decided that the only thing to do was to discharge the strikers, which was done, and they only thing to do was to discharge the strikers, which was done, and they were paid off at noon. However, Manager John F. Rogers stated Friday afternoon that if the strikers change their minds and wish their work back, they might recover it by making immediate application to the company and return to their employment this (Saturday morning. If the striking workmen do not do so their work will be given to not do so their work will be given to others. It is said that the strikers, counting overtime, average from $11 to $14 a week. Many of the striking men are of foreign birth and are unable to speak the English language

RECRUITS FOR 18TH CONNECTICUT

Recruiting Officer at Wauregan Building in March, 1863-About Fifty Men Needed - Encouraging Progress Reported From the Siege of Vicksburg-Col. Harland Promoted to Brigadier Generalship.

Through the arrival of Captain I. | the ranks of the Eighteenth to H. Bremley for the purpose of re-cruiting for the Eighteenth Connecti-cut, Eastern Connecticut men were to be given one more chance this week fifty years ago to participate in the war by going to the front. Enlist-ments were to be received in this city and in Thompson.

The war news from the front was considered to be encouraging, and as good progress was reported in the siege of Vicksburg, where a canal was being dug to move the ships around to an advantageous position to aid the land forces.

The following are extracts from the Bulletin of 1863

Death of an Old Citizen.

March 3 1863—Arthur F. Gilman, for 40 years a resident of this city, and for the last 16 years bookkeeper of the Norwich bank and auditor of the town accounts, expired at the Wauregan house Sunday afternoon of heart disease after an illness of but two days.

On the other hand the national forces are stronger than ever before, but their strength can still be largely increased, if gold is held at 1.60 in New York, what matters it? It is worth 3.00 in Richmond. If we are gaining in Richmond. If we are gaining in victories, remember we are suffering no defeats and not ourselves but our intagonists are the greatest loser by or walter. But we are not destined ng to walt for substantial successes. All along the lines the gathering hosts are shutting in the rebellion and pre-paring to deal it crushing blows. There are no craven spirits in that mighty nost that marched to death up the heights of Fredericksburg and now lines waiting upon the Rappahan-nock. There are no peace shrickers umong the battle worn heroes of Murreesboro. There are no faint hearts n those dark turrets that will soon nur) destruction upon the nest of the

LEGHORNS SEND EGG FIGURES TO HIGH MARK This Breed Swings Into Line at Con-

The total number of eggs laid during the seventeenth week of the International Egg Laying competition at Storrs was 1902. This is a gain of 328 over last week's production and a gain of thirteen eggs over the corresponding period last year. The large gain this week is do to the fact that the leghorns are doing so much better. The 43 pens laid 813 eggs this week and averaged 19 eggs per pen or 3.78 eggs per hen, a 54 per cent. production. The other breeds averaged nearly as well. The Buff Orpingtons averaged the best for the week. The two pens laid 53 eggs, a yield of 75.7 per cent. Two pens tied for first place for the week, each pen laid 28 eggs, and they were both White Wyandotte pens. A peep into an up-to-date bathroom is only less refreshing than the bath itself. During the summer you will the more look to the bath for bodily comfort. I will show you samples and plans of the porcelain and other tubs and give you estimates for the work of putting them in in the best manner. from a sanitary standpoint—and guar-antee the entire job.
